Attire

"It would be mortifying to the feelings of many ladies, could they be made to understand how little the heart of a man is affected by what is costly or new in their attire. Woman is fine for her own satisfaction alone. No man will admire her the more, no woman will like her the better for it. Modesty and freedom are enough for the former, and a something of shabbiness or simplicity will be most endearing to the latter."

I wanted to give a woman comfortable clothes that would flow with her body.
