With the ancient wisdom, Vrihika has found the way to the heart of each and every one of us,
And that is, the way to love.
The fabric of the world is 'love',
And that is why we have got to play more with it,
A little more often, sometimes the softness of the past with purple, green, blue, and yellow.
There's a generous play of colours,
A love affair in the heart of each woman
And that is why we have got to play more with it,
A little more often, sometimes the softness of the past
with purple, green, blue, and yellow.
There's a generous play of colours,
A love affair in the heart of each woman
