Comfort
Fashion has two purposes: comfort and dress. Beauty comes when fashion succeeds."

A photograph of a woman in a pink dress standing next to a large sample of a red and green floral fabric. The fabric has a dense, intricate pattern of red flowers, green leaves, and grey branches. The woman is wearing a pink dress with a similar floral embroidery on the chest. She is wearing large white tassel earrings and has her hair pulled back. The background is a plain, light-colored wall.

Important

"Over the years I have learned that what is important in a dress is the woman who is wearing it."

Beauty
"You cannot see the beauty in nature unless you have a healthy view of a wonderful soul; as in the reflection that comes from a clear water - reflecting the pure radiance of her."
