Glamour

Fashions are not something that come in dresses only. Fashions are in the sky, in our hearts. Colors that go with us always, the way we live, what is happening.

A woman with dark hair and makeup is modeling a saree. She is wearing a blue blouse with a grey border and a grey saree with a repeating circular pattern. The saree has a wide border featuring red and white dots. A pink and blue patterned fabric is visible at the bottom left. The background is a textured dark blue. In the bottom right corner of the image area, the text "Style no. 9047" is written.

The idea of mixing luxury and mass-market fashion is very modern, very now - no one wears head-to-toe designer anymore.
