TEXTILE DEAL

A woman is shown from the chest down, wearing a vibrant orange dress with intricate floral and vine patterns in shades of pink, purple, and white. She is adorned with multiple necklaces, including a long one with red beads and a shorter one with black beads. She also wears a watch on her left wrist and several rings. Her hands are positioned near a clear glass perfume bottle. The setting is a rustic wooden table with a bright blue bottle, a stack of books, and a lace doily with a small floral arrangement. The background is a warm, wood-paneled wall.
