

A woman is shown from the chest up, wearing a yellow and green sari with gold borders. She is adorned with extensive gold jewelry, including a large forehead ornament (maang tikka), earrings, a necklace with a central pendant, and a ring. Her eyes are closed, and she has a bindi on her forehead. The background is a textured blue wall.

The patterns, hues, shades and contours of work here have been designed by the very masters of the land. Some say that the craftsman went mad and did not wish to part with his magnificent opus. When asked why, he said- 'my greatest creation needs to be worn only by angels.' Today, this garment, made for angelic use can surely be yours forever.
