FOCUS ON THE WOMAN

is a history of growth. During the past century, it has the foundation and structure that led to the foundation of the modern fashion industry. The history of women has changed significantly, the nature of work to wear, shifting from heavy, ornate, and restrictive to more functional, comfortable, and practical. Today, women are not only focused on their professional lives, but also on their personal lives and their role in society. They are more confident and more empowered than ever before.
