The image shows two views of the same woman in the light orange outfit. On the left, she is seen from the back, highlighting the long, flowing dupatta and the intricate embroidery on the tunic. On the right, she is shown from the front, looking directly at the camera with her hand resting on her hip. The background is a teal wall with a window showing greenery. The "Tunic House" logo is at the top, followed by a quote: "For our never late too much care over the choice of your shoes, too many women think that they are unimportant." The number "65006" is displayed at the bottom center.

I love new clothes. If everyone could just wear new clothes everyday, I reckon depression wouldn't exist anymore.
