TEXTILE DEAL

FASHION DESIGNER

Candidates for the national internship program should have a strong interest in the fashion world. Strong research skills, resourcefulness and persistence are essential. Candidates should also have good communication skills, be able to work with small teams and conduct high profile projects. They should also be able to assist with research and presentation. They may have the opportunity to write small pieces for the magazine if they show interest and ability. Innovation school graduates and students with a business background are encouraged to apply.
