TEXTILE DEAL

My style is definitely schizophrenic; it does change from day to day a lot. It depends on my mood: sometimes I'll be going through a girly, childlike stage and wear a pretty lace dress with a bow in my hair. Then sometimes I'll be moody and just wear black

Designers want me to dress like Spring, in billowing things.
I don't feel like Spring, I feel like a warm red Autumn.

Take opera for example - to go to the opera you have to dress up in a tuxedo and pay lots of money.

Fun to Start

started taking my fiancé, Justin, to some red carpet events I would go to, and a bowtie is often something that was required.
We came across a lot of stylish bowties. We liked playing dress up for these events and we thought it would be fun to start a line, but it was never a reality until recently.

A wedding dress is both an intimate and personal for a woman - it must reflect the personality and style of the bride.
