Marriage is a beautiful milestone; wedding is the celebration of the journey. A joyful occasion, this holy matrimony is a significant step towards progression of life. It is then now wonder that wedding is an occasion, fit for a royalty, a magnificent moment that will be long remembered for its luminous and muted brilliance. An ideal alliance of vibrancy and happiness, every wedding must have a spectacular effect. To add vibrancy to the occasion is the wedding trousseau, a wedding collection, par excellence. Beautifully crafted, this luxuriant heritage peached lehenga choli is carefully selected. Handpicked to reflect passion and fertility, the lehenga lends a certain vibe to the coy bride. The golden motifs embellished around the ghagra reflect the ethnic craft. The pattern depicts a ray which translates into life, while the embroidered borders at the hemline add richness to the couture. While the ombre net dupatta makes the trousseau luminous, matching the shimmer of gold. The gold accessories, poetically decorate the look, full of promise and charm, thus elongating the complete look to another level.
