Indian dress remains the traditional clothing of Indian women. Even in varied styles, it is a long piece of fine cotton, silk or other fabric woven in different textures with different patterns. The dress has a lasting charm since it is not cut or tailored for a particular size. This graceful feminine attire can also be worn in several ways and its manner of wearing as well as its colour and texture are indicative of the status, age, occupation, region and religion of a woman. Looking good and dressing well is a necessity; dressing in a way of life, dressing is a matter of taste. Fashion is the style and custom prevalent at a given time. In some it is an art form, to others it is like a part of their culture and religion. Fashion can be used to serve as an extension of one's own personality or to disguise one's own true self.
