The advertisement features a woman in a green and gold traditional outfit, similar to the one in the main image, sitting and looking down. The background is a soft, glowing white with a subtle triangular shape. At the top center is a stylized logo consisting of three flame-like shapes in red, blue, and gold. Below the logo, the slogan "Life evolves from sand" is written in a serif font. Underneath the slogan, a smaller text reads: "Born for diamond, true for sand (and every grain) she loves, she loves you for sand. When there's beauty there is life. True to show down to the very fiber, day after day after sand. This dress glows with her magnificence." To the right of the woman, the number "74004" is printed, accompanied by a small floral emblem.
