

A saree is not a long strip of material with a border, it is a garment that is draped by women across - it gradually begins to take shape and character. The real beauty of Indian culture is visible.

D.no-1001

The very human garment is worn with a joyful and glorious bliss in the temples of India, surrounded by the lush greenery in places like West and along the East

D.no-1007

The blouse offer a right to work. With every traditional saree, you offer to wear less revealing blouses. The saree blouse is like a sari, but shorter. They are also in saree style, and could be built as or deep cut at the back or even have a better type design.

D.no-1009

1001

1002

1003

1007

1008

1009

1004

1005

1006

