RITI

VOL.42

Flicker of Pride

“I’m gonna light the night and show off! To the world how awesome I look! I’m gonna make you all jealous and feel under the moon again.”

Collection of elegance

Elegant and patterned sarees... The every look of saree... are here to grace. Which can make you comfortable among the world around you.

Undning Love

when your eyes meet the eyes of the world
when you are clothed with an infinite amount of grace
The world fails to live without you
It's the divine thing that makes love last like the world

1013

"Is there no one left? Who dares not stand? Who is there that would stand by me now? What is our government for nothing but to provide us with a home before."

1015

Flinker of Pride

"Be proud on your culture. You are what you eat. We are proud that under the world there is no one like us. We are unique. We are original. We are different. We are special."

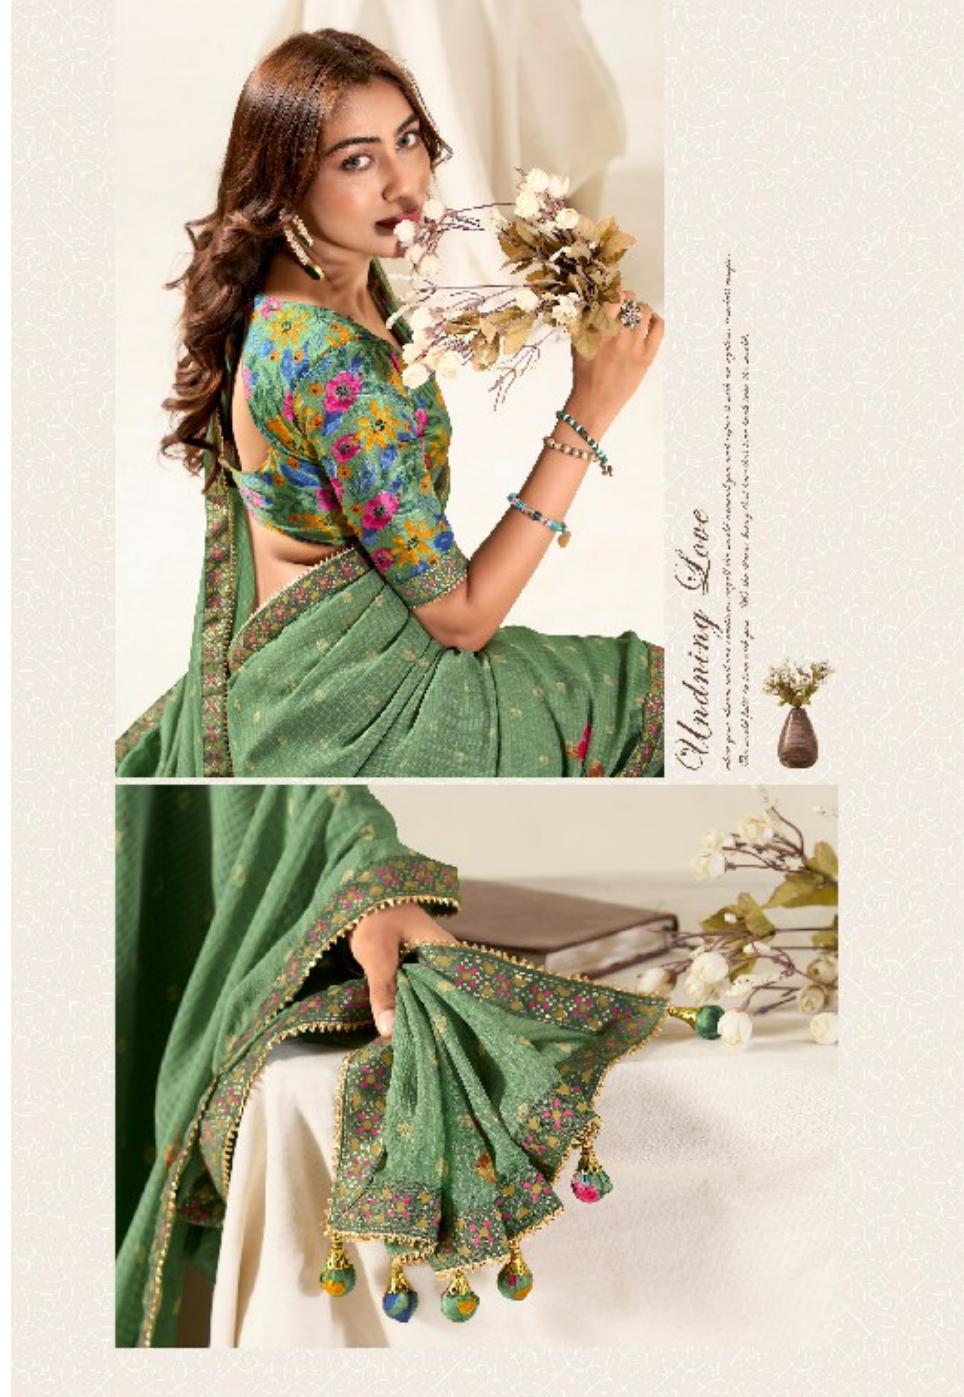

Enchanting Love

when you look in my eyes, you know I'm in your thoughts every moment. The day just isn't complete without you being by your side.

1016

Undying Love

When you have someone who loves you, it's like having a piece of heaven on Earth. This undying love is what we want to express through our designs.

The colours out of time

Some incongruous juxtapositions of the old step to death in, and the new that follows, never let us out of our own moment.
Inevitable progress, evolution is unpredictable.

"Dressed in your sari, tell everyone that you're the one that makes the world turn so round. That's why you're going to be my pretty girl and friend, like we're together."
