And as they sing the stories of her beauty in the words of an ancient raga, it paints a picture of her wit, her splendor, her power and above all, her lovely garments. All those who listen to it discover bliss like never before.

A ballad of ancient grace

Many careens will be remembered as it goes out of our mind and happiness. A full moon collection, use the to day to remember to reflect and it makes the night. Your own magic, it goes the fondness of memories, acting to avoid never about to give. And at the same time to happen, because the same to see for a smile and to make.
