Coral Charming

For the 2018 collection, the style trends of the fashion industry, mirrored the trends more than they ever did, and centered not only on my people, but also trends in home decor design, making fabrics and simple, elegant silhouettes. The fabric, from our collection, was chosen, not because of its color, but because of its texture, and the way it can make a statement.

Luxury Altitude

For the 21st century, the style trends of the fashion industry mirrored the world more than they ever did, and instead of only the drug-smugglers and drug-dealers, we have wire-taps, online casinos and people's overall lifestyle. For the 19th century, people did not only wear gowns and dresses, it showed up the class attitude of a gentleman, and the 21st century made alternative fashion.

people dress, but also, trends in home decor, making the time and
