You don't learn style from watching people on a runway. Fashion happens every morning when you wake up.

Fashion is about
dressing according
to what's fashion-

about being yourself.

I love new clothes.
If everyone could
just wear new clothes everyday, I
reckon depression
wouldn't exist anymore.

One of my primary
objects is to form the tools so the tools
themselves shall
fashion the work and
give to every part its

being

Fashion is always of the time in which you live. It is not something standing
alone. But the grand
problem, the most important problem,
is to rejuvenate
women. To make
women look young.
Then their outlook
changes. They feel more joyous.

Fashion is not something that exists in dresses only. Fashion is in the sky, in the street, fashion has to do with ideas, the way we live, what is happening.
