Fashion should be a form of expression, and not a state of mind.

A woman with long dark hair is standing in a lush garden. She is wearing a black long-sleeved dress with intricate gold embroidery on the bodice and a matching black shawl with large, colorful floral prints in shades of pink, blue, and yellow. She has her right hand on her hip and is looking towards the camera. In the background, there is a white ornate fountain with water spraying upwards, surrounded by various colorful flowers and green foliage. The entire scene is framed by a light brown border.
