Woven wonder

Two photographs of the same woman in maroon dresses. In the top photograph, she is shown from the side, looking over her shoulder, wearing a maroon dress with a large necklace and a ring. In the bottom photograph, she is standing full-length, facing slightly to the right, wearing a maroon dress with a different pattern and a necklace. Both photographs are set against a backdrop of traditional Indian murals. To the left of the images, there is vertical text: "SINGER" on the top half and "DESIGNER" on the bottom half, with a small arrow pointing to the right between them. On the far left edge of the page, there is a vertical strip of text: "ALIQA" at the top, followed by "EXCLUSIVELY" and "A-1123".

A full-body photograph of the same woman in the teal velvet dress. She is sitting, resting her chin on her hand, and looking towards the camera. The background includes a white chair with a decorative backrest and a dark, warm-toned wall.
